GENERAL ADMINISTRATION (SC.A) DEPARTMENT

G.O. Ms. No. 504

Dated: 11-08-2008
Read the following:-

- 1) G.O. Ms. No. 469, G.A. (SC.A) Dept., dated 8.11.1996.
- 2) G.O. Ms. No. 173, G.A. (SC.A) Dept., dated 26.4.1997.
- 3) G.O. Ms. No. 76, G.A. (SC.A) Dept., dated 4.3.1998.

ORDER:

With a view to provide further relief, besides payment of exgratia, to the family of any person killed in extremist violence, who is not accused of any offence, Government have introduced a scheme of compassionate appointment to the dependent family member of the deceased civilians and in the G.O. first read above orders were issued authorizing the District Collectors to issue orders in respect of any department where there is a vacancy for appointment of a person upto the level of Junior Assistant / Typist depending upon the qualifications of the applicant. The District Collectors were also authorized to grant relaxation of age on a case to case basis. To enable these appointments a provision has also been incorporated in section 4 of Act 2 of 1994. The said orders were given effect from 26.2.1996. In the G.O. third read above, orders were issued allowing minimum period to acquire requisite educational qualifications, period in which the minor can seek relief and relaxation of upper age /educational qualifications when the dependent family is seeking employment in the category of Class.IV.

2. Government have been rejecting the requests for compassionate appointments in respect of the cases occurred prior to 26.2.1996. In a very few special cases/on the directions of the Hon'ble High Court, Government have permitted the District Collectors concerned to provide compassionate appointment to the applicants of earlier cases subject to fulfillment of other conditions.

3. Government reviewed the matter and decided to extend the benefit of compassionate appointment to the cases where the innocent civilians were killed by extremists prior to 26.2.1996.

4. Accordingly, Government direct that orders issued in the G.O. first read above are applicable to the cases of killings of civilians occurred prior to 26.2.1996 also, provided that the age and educational qualifications of dependent family member seeking employment shall be satisfied as on the date of death of the respective civilian. Further, the concessions allowed in the G.O. third read above are also applicable to the applicants.

5. Government also direct that the eligible applicants shall submit their applications to the District Collectors concerned for compassionate appointment under the scheme within a period of three months from the date of this order. Thereafter, the applications shall not be entertained.
